TERMINATION LETTER

Name of Employee: _____

Designation: _____

Respected Ma'am!

We hope you will be in the best state of health and Aiman. We feel sorry to inform you that your teaching career in our institution is going to end this month on _____ as we are issuing a formal termination letter to you. However, we feel bad about it since we have developed a good professional relationship with you. The reason for this prompt termination is that;

So, it is being directed to you that you resign from your services till _____ otherwise it would be considered the termination as well as a strict action might take place against you. We have already hired another teacher in your replacement so you do not need to spend more days in school. We hope that you find a better future ahead.

Regards:
